sdt

Service Blueprint.
Because miles to go before I sleep.

A detailed description of the nature and the characteristics of the service interaction

A Service Blueprint is a graphical visualization that displays the process functions above and below the line of visibility to the customer: all the touchpoints and the back-stage processes are documented and aligned to the user experience. It helps to point out assumptions and unknowns, and discover weaknesses and opportunities.

sdt